ADDITIONAL INFO:

Coral is an actress based in Belgrade, working in the US, Europe, and the Middle East. She began her acting career at the early age of 13 when she booked her first agent and started auditioning for film, TV and theater, bouncing onto every stage she could find. Soon after she appeared in the Comedy Central’s sitcom Shutafim (roommates), and was cast as Lucinda in the Musical Into The Woods (Stephen Sondheim) in the Zamir Theatre.

Graduated from the American Academy of Dramatic Arts in New York, Coral worked around the globe in several TV and film productions. She is known for her role as Hannah in Ski-ter Jones’s (the Commercial King) Netflix pilot Block Boys Behind the Lights, and her role as Jesse in Arian Behpour’s feature film Foreign Form. Some of her other key credits include Eitan Kunit’s TV pilot Trippin Stacia, Wesley Aldrich’s official music video of the song You Can’t Kill Me Now, and Vlada Maricic's official music video of the song Sonet (Label: PGP RTS).
Most recently, Coral played Bebbin in the American fantasy show "The Pendragon Cycle", and Rebecca in the upcoming Serbian Rom-com show "Samo On" ("Only him").

Notably, Coral had the privilege of playing Lati Meir in the second and third season of the renowned sci-fi show The Ark. The show, created by Dean Devlin, is now streaming on Syfy Channel and Peacock.
